FOR CONGRESS—SECOND DISTRICT,
LUTHER HANCHETT,
Of Portage County.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF DAY.

In compliance with many requests, and what is believed to be a general desire among the republicans of the county, the convention to nominate county officers has been postponed until

THURSDAY, THE 13TH INST.

This change has been made to accommodate those who desire to visit Madison on the 12th to hear Gov. Seward, and who, as delegates or otherwise, wish to attend the convention.

It is hoped that no confusion will arise from this change of day, as notice will be given in time to reach most, if not all, the delegates; but if any of the delegates should be present here on the 12th, a single day's delay will be the extent of their trouble.

THEY WORK TOGETHER.—The Douglas men and the know nothings, north and south, work together. They are getting up fusions in their electoral tickets; and quite recently, Mr. Goggin, the nominee of the know nothing party of Virginia at the last gubernatorial election, has declared for Douglas. We quote the following paragraph from the New York Express, the organ of the American party in the north, to show how that party proposes to help Douglas in Indiana:—

VEVAY, Ind., Aug. 22, 1860.
To the Editors of the N. Y. Express:

The union fires are burning brightly out here, and since the formation of our electoral ticket large numbers are being added to our ranks; if we do no more, we may at least give the state to Douglas.

INDIANA.

Why do they work together? It must be because their principles are identical. Hear what Douglas says about it:

"I am asked why do I not advise my friends to make a union ticket with the secessionists. Why don't you make oil and water mix? A union ticket between the interventionists and the non-interventionists! Never on earth. I am willing to act with all men WHO AGREE WITH ME IN PRINCIPLE."

AN OVERSIGHT.—Our new neighbors, over the river, assert in one column that Abraham Lincoln is in favor of negro equality. In the next column they say that Lincoln does not believe in the social and political equality of the white and black races. This is no doubt an oversight.—They certainly would not desire to convict themselves of misstating Lincoln's position in so glaring a manner. They undoubtedly intended one statement for the "abolitionists," and the other for those who dislike the African race. Such contradictions ought not to go out together. Somebody will, we fear, accuse the "Democrat" of lying, if it does not put more space between its stories.

☞ We fail to recognise the nice distinction drawn by the "Democrat" in relation to courtesy and good breeding. Cannot discourtesy and ill-manners be discountenced when applied to another? Must it always be used personally towards ourselves, before it is proper to condemn it? For instance, the "Democrat" of this morning applies the approbrious epithets of "tory" and "traitor" to Abraham Lincoln—now we consider this discourteous, not only towards Mr. Lincoln, but to his friends. We not only think so, but in our opinion it exhibits a rudeness and incivility unbecoming a public journal. We believe the "Democrat" is the first paper of its party which has used such language towards Mr. Lincoln during this campaign.

Lamartine is reported to have said, that at the end of a century the only book possible will be a newspaper;

Synopsis of Telegraphic News.

San Francisco dates to Aug. 22, received. Senator Latham has declared for Breckinridge. The political newspapers stand 24 for Douglas, 21 for Breckinridge, 7 for Lincoln and 3 for Bell. The Secretary of Orgon has refused to issue the certificate of election to Shiels, elected to congress, on account of the election being premature and unauthorized by law.

Garibaldi has landed in Calabria, and had met with success.

Advices from Constantinople, Aug. 8th, state that twenty churches and three convents were burned at Balonect, during the recent disturbances. Male christians were murdered and the women outraged. The Turkish troops sent to preserve order were assisting in the outrages. The Musselmen population of Damascus, as late as July 28th, maintained a menacing attitude.—Large bodies of fanatics were parading the town, demanding the surrender of the christians, who had sought refuge in the citadel. Troops dispatched from Beyrout had not yet arrived.

Edward Thode, a fugitive Russian defaulter, for whose arrest a reward of $25,000 was offered by the Russian government, was arrested in New York on the 3d.—$50,000 in Russian paper was found in his possession.

Napoleon has proposed a congress to settle the Italian question. The city of Shanghai is protected by the allies. The Chinese rebels are making progress and trade with the interior is stopped.

Senator Polk addressed a large crowd in Lexington, Mo., on Tuesday, in favor of Breckinridge.

Dates from New Mexico to the 21st have been received.

A campaign against the Navajoo Indians will be made this fall. The citizens will raise one thousand volunteers, independent of the regular army. Weather continues dry in that country, there being no rain for some time. The crops are suffering for the want of it.

STRIKING AT RANDOM.—The new editors of the Democrat are not yet sufficiently posted in the politics in Wisconsin to deal their blows without hitting their own friends. In their issue of this morning, they are suffering under a severe attack of negro equality, and find all sorts of horrors likely to result from the ascendancy of republicanism. Let us call attention to a little scrap of democratic history in this state.

In 1849, when the democracy were coquetting with, wooed and embraced Booth, as well as the free soil party, a democratic state convention passed a series of resolutions as strongly tinctured with the monster of abolitionism as ever were adopted outside of a meeting of Garrisonians.—Among the resolutions was the following:

Resolved, THAT WE HOLD TO AND ADVOCATE THE DOCTRINE OF FREE AND EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

The convention which adopted this resolution nominated Nelson Dewey for Governor, Samuel W. Beal for Lieut. Governor, Wm. A. Barstow for Secretary of State, S. Park Coon for Attorney General, and J. C. Fairchild for Treasurer. These men were good democrats then, and are good democrats still, as "democracy" was and is authoratively expounded. Each formally, by letter, accepted his nomination, and each pledged himself unequivocally to the resolutions of the convention. Mr. Barstow, who subsequently received still higher honors from his party, replied as follows:

I cheerfully and unequivocally state, that I am in favor of the principles set forth in those resolutions. I believe they contain principles which should AT ALL TIMES govern the action of the democratic party, and am ready at all times to advocate and sustain them with whatever ability or influence I may possess, either official or otherwise.
Very respectfully yours, etc.,
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

Were our new neighbors ignorant of this fact in the history of their party, or did they design to give a prominent democratic politician and a townsman a dig under the ribs? Has nobody but the editors of the Gazette and republicans advocated free suffrage in Wisconsin? or are all who have advocated that measure in favor of the social equality of the white and black races?

Who believes that "all men are created free and equal," a declaration whose moral, social, political and logical sequence is, that negroes are every way equal with white men, and therefore, it can be but a simple act of justice to put them on such equality?—Daily Democrat.

Wm. A. Barstow, Nelson Dewey, S. Park Coon, S. W. Beal, J. C. Fairchild, and the democratic state convention of 1849. (See the resolutions of that convention, and the replies of its candidates.)

A POLITICAL TEXT BOOK.—This is a very useful volume for reference. It is compiled by Horace Greeley and John F. Cleveland, and comprises a brief view of presidential nominations and electors, including all the platformes ever yet adopted; also a history of the struggle respecting slavery in the territories, and of the action of congress as to the freedom of the public lands, with the most notable speeches and letters of Messrs. Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, &c., touching the questions of the day; and returns of all presidential elections since 1836. It is intended for all parties and all partizan bias is excluded, and is so conveinent as to be almost a necessity for those who desire to inform themselves upon the political topics of the day. For sale at Newell's Bookstore.

☞ It is thought by some that the "Democrat" sets its coulter too deep for a man who ploughs new ground. That may be true or not, but we should be obliged to its editors if they would furnish the PROOF for the assertions made in the leading editorial article of this morning.

☞ The population of Racine, according to the census, is 7,824. This is 19 more than Janesville, and barely entitles Racine to be called the second city in Wisconsin. If our census takers had taken two or three weeks to hunt up the number necessary, we have no doubt enough might have been found to have placed Janesville ahead of Racine.

National Horse Show.

There was a good exhibition of stock this forenoon, and a larger attendance than yesterday. The principal feature was the trotting of double teams in harness. Three teams were entered—Chieftain, owned by M. F. Patrick of Chicago, and Dick Turpin owned by G. Dutcher, of Madison; a span of chesnut geldings from Milwaukee, and a pair of bays, Ratler and Rowdy, owned by J. M. Leonard and T. W. Brandt of this city.

Chieftain and Dick Turpin and the sorrel span started together, and made a beautiful trot. The first heat was made in 3:11 by Chieftain and Turpin, without breaking.—The second heat by these horses which was relieved by a trial by Ratler and Rowdy, was 2:58½. The Milwaukee horses were beaten several rods.

The the time made by Ratler and Rowdy (who turned the track alone,) was 3:20 first heat, and 3:17 second heat.

The premium was awarded to Messrs. Dutcher and Patrick.

The following premiums, reported after our paper went to press last evening, were awarded on yesterday's exhibition:

Class H.—Stallions, 2 years old. 1st prem., W. J. Pixley, Delevan, Wis.; 2d do, W. C. Hadford, Rockford, Ill.

Class I.—Geldings or fillies, 3 years old. 1st prem., J. M. Leonard, Janesville; 2d do, H. H. Yates, Chicago.

Class J.—Geldings or fillies 2 years old. 1st prem., H. V. McCarger, Magnolia, Wis.; 2d do, J. M. Leonard, Janesville.

Class K.—Geldings or fillies 1 year old. 1st prem., H. B. Fales, Janesville.

Class N.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies under saddle. 1st prem., A. Spink, Chicago—time, 2:48; 2d do, O. H. Heath, Waukegan, Ill.,—time, 2:51.

Class V.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies, 3 years old. H. H. Yates, Chicago, "Minnehaha."—no time furnished with "Minnie."

The following is the programme for to-morrow:

FORENOON.

1st. Class F, Single carriage horses to harness.
2d. Class B, Stallion roadsters, 4 years old and upwards.
3d. Class R, Trotting geldings or fillies to harness.
4th. Class Extra No. 1, Trotting tandem.

AFTERNOON.

1st. Class P, Gentlemen's saddle horses.
2d. Class U, Gentlemen equestrians.
3d. LADY EQUESTRIANS.
4th. Award of premiums to lady equestrians.

The exhibition to-morrow will exceed in interest any of the preceding days, and if the weather is good the fair ground will be crowded. The display of lady equestrianism has always been a popular and attractive feature in our local fairs, and with the large number of competitors, the scene tomorrow will be one of exciting interest.—An excellent opportunity to witness not only this, but the other exhibitions on the track will be afforded from the seats erected inside the enclosure.

Aside from the published programme for the day, the Dane Cavalry will make a full dress parade. This company is unquestionably the best cavalry company in the west, and its presence and parade will add to the attractions of the day.

A STATE CONVENTION OF THE WIDE-AWAKES.—The indications are that there will be a very large representation of the Wide-Awake companies of the state at the Seward meeting on the 12th inst., and that the demonstration in the evening will be one of great brilliancy.

The companies from Beloit, Janesville, Whitewater, Elkhorn, Delevan, Waukesha, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Mineral Point, Mazomanie, &c., &c., are expected. The invitation is general to the various companies of the state, and our club here are taking measures to receive their visitors, and render the affair as pleasant for them as possible.

A meeting of the Madison Wide-Awakes was held on Saturday evening, and steps were taken for providing a rendezvous for the companies that may be here on the 12th, where they can leave their uniforms and torches with safety, and where they can assemble and form when the hour arrives for the parade. Our company will spare no pains to see that such of their brethren as attend the Seward meeting are well cared for.—Madison Journal.

YANCEY ON THE DOUGLAS AND K. N. COALITION.—Yancey, in his speech at Memphis, alluded to the coalition between Douglas and the Know Nothings in New York and Kentucky, thus:

"I don't wonder Leslie Coombs asks the Irishmen not to criticise the past too much. I do not much wonder when we think of that bloody and awful August, when fire and faggot, bayonet and ball poured out their blood in the streets of Louisville, amid the shrieks of their women and children. [Immense aplpause.] I don't wonder after Know Nothingism had shown its horrid vengeance against these poor foreigners there that Coombs should now say, don't let us criticise the past much. It is my province to say to the foreign population, if you forget the hour when the bones of your wives and children crackled in the flames of Know Nothingism you deserve to be forgotten of your God. [Tremendous applause."]

TOMATO CATSUP.—Take ripe tomatoes, and scald them just sufficient to allow you to take off the skins; then let them stand for a day, covered with salt; strain them through to remove the seeds; then to every two quarts, add three ounces of cloves, two of black pepper, two nutmegs, and a very little Cayenne pepper, with a little salt; boil the liquor for an hour, then let it cool and settle; add a pint of the best cider vinegar, after which, bottle it, corking and sealing it tightly. Keep in a cool place.

ANOTHER WAY.—Take one bushel of tomatoes, and boil them until they are soft; squeeze them through a fine wire sieve, and add half a gallon of vinegar, one pint and a half of salt, two ounces of cloves, quarter of a pound of allspice, two ounces of Cayenne pepper, five heads of garlic skinned and separated; mix together, and boil about three hours, or until reduced to about one half; then bottle without straining.

TO PRESERVE PURPLE PLUMS.—Make a syrup of clean brown sugar; clarify it; when perfectly clear and boiling hot, pour it over the plums, having picked out all unsound ones and stems; let them remain in the syrup two days, then drain it off, make it boiling hot, skim it, and pour it over again; let them remain another day or two, then put them in a preserving-kettle over the fire, and simmer gently until the syrup is reduced, and thick or rich. One pound of sugar for each pound of plums.

For the Daily Gazette.

"See Me."

In the Daily Democrat of Sept. 4th, appeared an article with the above heading, in which the nominee of the republican party for the presidency is ridiculed for remaining at home instead of taking the stump to advocate his claims for that office, like his competitor, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the former and purer days of the republic, modesty was esteemed a virtue; but it seems that such an idea was preposterous and no person in the estimation of democrats, is qualified for the highest office in the gift of the people, unless he is a perfect adept in the games of "bluff" and "brag," and it cannot be said that their candidate is at all deficient in any point necessary to qualify him for the practice of these games. "My great principle" looms far above all other considerations with him, and when that "principle" is fully investigated, its whole substance is found comprised in the single word self; all else is the merest moonshine, as has been proved to the satisfaction of every intelligent man in the nation. In fact, he himself proves it when he says that he is not in favor of giving to the people of the territories, the power to elect their own rulers before they become a state, and denounces all such as wish to do so as usurpers and traitors. If anybody doubts that he said so, let him look at the Congressional Globe of the last session, and he will find it there reported in his speeches.

So that "my great principle" resolves it self into "my great self;" and my great self, rings only and continually, with a thousand variations, "Come and see me;" "See me, for I am the great High Priest of democracy; see me, for I repealed the Missouri compromise line; see me, for I gave to slavery, territory five times the state of New York; see me, for I introduced a bill into the United States Senate for the revival of the alien and sedition laws; see me, for I introduced another bill for the imprisonment of all persons neglecting to return fugitive slaves to their masters, knowing them to be such; see me, for I voted against the repeal of the laws of the territory of New Mexico, declaring all white laboring men and women slaves; see me, for I applauded disunion sentiments uttered by southern senators; see me, for I am in close communion with Arch Bishop Hughes; see me for I am a continuation of Japhet in seagch of his father," as I am search of my mother, see me, for I "played smart" with the arrangements of politicians at Charleston and Baltimore; See me, for I was a traitor to the noble Broderick, and even after death would not vindicate his character; Oh, come and see me all ye people, for I am the nominee of one side of the "great unterrified" for the office of president, and if I ever get to the White House see how deep your pockets are, and then see you all in a place that shall be nameless. J. B. K.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

GOV. SEWARD'S PARTY FOR THE WEST.—The Auburn Adveriser learns, from a responsible source, that Lieut. Govenor Patterson and Gen. Nye, of New York, together with the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, of Quincy, Mass., and his son C. F. Adams, Esq., of Boston, so also Geo. E. Baker, Esq. of Albany, will accompany the Governor on his western excursion.

A PROSPEROUS JOURNAL.—The proprietors of the Chicago Press and Tribune, who, a year ago last November were obliged to ask an extension on a large amount of debt announce that the last dollar of that dept was paid off in full, principal and interest, last week, and that beyond the ordinary current accounts paid monthly, they owe no man a dollar.

Two thousand seven hundred hogs are being fattened in Lucas county, Iowa, by D. N. Smith. A large drove for one man to own.

A correspondent of the Western Christian Advocate, speaking of Superior city, on the western termination on the Lake, adds: "The location of this city is charming, superior to any on the Lake. Population 800, subsisting mainly by selling lots to one another."

Mr. Winans, of Baltimore, intends to build a hotel in that city costing a million dollars. He intends to make it superior to any hotel in the country.

BRECKINRIDGE STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY.—The Breckinridge wing of the democracy meet in state convention, at the St. Charles hotel in this city at 3 p. m, to-day. The leaders of this faction have gathered here in great force, for them—some say as high as 200, others 100, while others insist that it is 10 or 12. But the latter estimate must be regarded as the base coinage of some malicious mind—at all events they comprise the most respectable and able members of the democratic party, what there is left of it. Hon. Thomas Campbell, of Illinois, who is said to be quite a gun, is to address them. Among the men of note we observe E. Fox Cook, E. A. Calkins, of the Argus, E. B. Dean, Mr. Van Dyke and many others.—Wisconsin of Tuesday.

We are glad to see our esteemed friend, Hon. Luther Hanchett of Portage county, put in nomination for congress by the republicans of the 2d district. We have had opportunities during two sessions of the legislature, of witnessing the soundness and efficiency of Mr. Hanchett's labors as a law maker and legislator. We take pleasure, therefore, in saying that in our judgment the republicans of the 2d district have recognized the obligation that rested upon them, and which rests upon all parties that have overwhelming majorities in nominating their best man.

Mr. H. is 35 years of age—a native of the Buckeye State—a good lawyer, a good speaker and an honest and honorable man. His election is certain.—Home League.

NEW LINE OF EXPORTS.—We saw on the docks of Newberry & Goodell yesterday 18,000 feet of seasoned white oak and butternut lumber, for cabinet makers use. This came from Chilton on the east shore of Lake Winnebago and is destined for New York city. Should this venture prove profitable it will be followed up by other shipments; we have forests of oak, maple and other valuable timber in this region, sufficient to supply any demand—and we are glad to see this indication of its being brought into use. We notice almost daily large arrivals of staves for shipment; we fear the advanced rates for freights may have a discouraging effect upon this article of export—but hope it may not.—Green Bay Press.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 5.

The Breckinridge state convention yesterday was attended by about 150 delegates from all parts of the state. Hon. G. H. Judd, of Racine, presided. A full electoral ticket was put in nomination. Electors at Large—Samuel Elmore, of Milwaukee, and Napoleon B. Van Slyke, of Madison, 1st district, Isaac J. Ullman, of Racine. 2nd district, H. D. Barron, of Pepin. 3rd district, H. S. Pierpont, of Manitowoc. Great harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. In the evening the convention was addressed for three hours by Hon. Thompson Campbell, of Illinois.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dentistry.
M. B. Johnson still continues the practice of Dentistry at the old place, over the Rock County Bank, corner Main and Milwaukee streets, Janesville, Wis. He is now manufacturing artificial Dentures on Vulcanized Rubber Base. This substance has been thoroughly tested, and found to be superior to many others. It is very strong and light and is worn with greater ease and comfort than most anything else, and can be afforded at a price which places it within the reach of all. Call and see it. He also continues to make the Continuous Gum Work, which is superior to all others; together with all other styles of work now in use.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES.

Within the last few weeks the publishers have received flattering testimonials of the merits of this edition, from nearly THIRTY Presidents of as many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are from Presidents Frelinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cummings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Wayland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunswick, Lord of Dartmouth, Pease of Burlington, Ballou of Tufts, Gale of Galesville, Ciampi of Holy Cross, Murphy of Abington, Labaree of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Fisher of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Sturtevant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochester, Wallace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knox &c. In them are expressions like the following:—

"An honor to American science, taste and criticism." "An enduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly satisfied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bar, and for the last five years upon the bench.—I have ever found it a safe counsellor, and an indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." "For the sake of my country and the English language, I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained." "It is a work for the present; and for all coming time." "Stands unquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that it will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of anything that could be added to fit it for these ends." "A vast treasury of knowledge, the whole of which is needed by every one who uses the English language, either as a writer, a speaker, or a reader." "Ought to be a part of the furniture of every American house." "We long ago accepted Webster as the standard in our college, and the experience of every term strengthens our conviction of the wisdom of our choice." "So long as you continue to incorporate all the improvements which are developed in the science of lexicography." &c., &c. 36w2m.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city.

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material.

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are impervious when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Rubie and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

VALENTINE FREIGHT EXPRESS COMPANY,
Via New and Erie R. R.
N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at al principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, JR., Agent, First door east of Hyatt House.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES.

Within the last few weeks the publishers have received flattering testimonials of the merits of this edition, from nearly THIRTY Presidents of as many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are from Presidents Frelinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cummings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Wayland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunswick, Lord of Dartmouth, Pease of Burlington, Ballou of Tufts, Gale of Galesville, Ciampi of Holy Cross, Murphy of Abington, Labaree of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Fisher of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Sturtevant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochester, Wallace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knox &c. In them are expressions like the following:—

"An honor to American science, taste and criticism." "An enduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly satisfied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bar, and for the last five years upon the bench.—I have ever found it a safe counsellor, and an indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." "For the sake of my country and the English language, I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained. It is a work for the present, and for all coming time." "Stands unquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that it will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of anything that could be added to fit it for these ends." "A vast treasury of knowledge, the whole of which is needed by every one who uses the English language, either as a writer, a speaker, or a reader." "Ought to be a part of the furniture of every American house." "We long ago accepted Webster as the standard in our college, and the experience of every term strengthens our conviction of the wisdom of our choice." "So long as you continue to incorporate all the improvements which are developed in the science of lexicography," &c., &c. 30w2m.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed: in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF DAY.

In compliance with many requests, and what is believed to be a general desire among the republicans of the county, the convention to nominate county officers has been postponed until

THURSDAY, THE 13*TH INST.*

This change has been made to accommodate those who desire to visit Madison on the 12th to hear Gov. Seward, and who, as delegates or otherwise, wish to attend the convention.

It is hoped that no confusion will arise from this change of day, as notice will be given in time to reach most, if not all, the delegates; but if any of the delegates should be present here on the 12th, a single day's delay will be the extent of their trouble.

THEY WORK TOGETHER.—The Douglas men and the know nothings, north and south, work together. They are getting up fusions in their electoral tickets; and quite recently, Mr. Goggin, the nominee of the know nothing party of Virginia at the last gubernatorial election, has declared for Douglas. We quote the following paragraph from the New York Express, the organ of the American party in the north, to show how that party proposes to help Douglas in Indiana:—

VEVAY, Ind., Aug. 22, 1860.
To the Editors of the N. Y. Express:

The union fires are burning brightly out here, and since the formation of our electoral ticket large numbers are being added to our ranks; if we do no more, we may at least give the state to Douglas.

INDIANA.

Why do they work together? It must be because their principles are identical. Hear what Douglas says about it:

"I am asked why do I not advise my friends to make a union ticket with the secessionists. Why don't you make oil and water mix? A union ticket between the interventionists and the non-interventionists! Never on earth. I am willing to act with all men WHO AGREE WITH ME IN PRINCIPLE."

AN OVERSIGHT.—Our new neighbors, over the river, assert in one column that Abraham Lincoln is in favor of negro equality. In the next column they say that Lincoln does not believe in the social and political equality of the white and black races. This is no doubt an oversight.—They certainly would not desire to convict themselves of misstating Lincoln's position in so glaring a manner. They undoubtedly intended one statement for the "abolitionists," and the other for those who dislike the African race. Such contradictions ought not to go out together. Somebody will, we fear, accuse the "Democrat" of lying, if it does not put more space between its stories.

☞ We fail to recognise the nice distinction drawn by the "Democrat" in relation to courtesy and good breeding. Cannot discourtesy and ill-manners be discountenanced when applied to another? Must it always be used personally towards ourselves, before it is proper to condemn it? For instance, the "Democrat" of this morning applies the approbrious epithets of "tory" and "traitor" to Abraham Lincoln—now we consider this discourteous, not only towards Mr. Lincoln, but to his friends. We not only think so, but in our opinion it exhibits a rudeness and incivility unbecoming a public journal. We believe the "Democrat" is the first paper of its party which has used such language towards Mr. Lincoln during this campaign.

Lamartine is reported to have said, that at the end of a century the only book possible will be a newspaper.

Synopsis of Telegraphic News.

San Francisco dates to Aug. 22, received. Senator Latham has declared for Breckinridge. The political newspapers stand 24 for Douglas, 21 for Breckinridge, 7 for Lincoln and 3 for Bell. The Secretary of Orgon has refused to issue the certificate of election to Shiels, elected to congress, on account of the election being premature and unauthorized by law.

Garibaldi has landed in Calabria, and had met with success.

Advices from Constantinople, Aug. 8th, state that twenty churches and three convents were burned at Balonect, during the recent disturbances. Male christians were murdered and the women outraged. The Turkish troops sent to preserve order were assisting in the outrages. The Masselmen population of Damascus, as late as July 28th, maintained a menacing attitude.—Large bodies of fanatics were parading the town, demanding the surrender of the christians, who had sought refuge in the citadel. Troops dispatched from Beyrout had not yet arrived.

Edward Thode, a fugitive Russian defaulter, for whose arrest a reward of $25,000 was offered by the Russian government, was arrested in New York on the 3d.—$50,000 in Russian paper was found in his possession.

Napoleon has proposed a congress to settle the Italian question. The city of Shanghai is protected by the allies. The Chinese rebels are making progress and trade with the interior is stopped.

Senator Polk addressed a large crowd in Lexington, Mo., on Tuesday, in favor of Breckinridge.

Dates from New Mexico to the 21st have been received.

A campaign against the Navajoo Indians will be made this fall. The citizens will raise one thousand volunteers, independent of the regular army. Weather continues dry in that country, there being no rain for some time. The crops are suffering for the want of it.

STRIKING AT RANDOM.—The new editors of the Democrat are not yet sufficiently posted in the politics in Wisconsin to deal their blows without hitting their own friends. In their issue of this morning, they are suffering under a severe attack of negro equality, and find all sorts of horrors likely to result from the ascendancy of republicanism. Let us call attention to a little scrap of democratic history in this state.

In 1849, when the democracy were coquetting with, wooed and embraced Booth, as well as the free soil party, a democratic state convention pasied a series of resolutions as strongly tinctured with the monster of abolitionism as ever were adopted outside of a meeting of Garrisonians.—Among the resolutions was the following:

Resolved, THAT WE HOLD TO AND ADVOCATE THE DOCTRINE OF FREE AND EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

The convention which adopted this resolution nominated Nelson Dewey for Governor, Samuel W. Beal for Lieut. Governor, Wm. A. Barstow for Secretary of State, S. Park Coon for Attorney General, and J. C. Fairchild for Treasurer. These men were good democrats then, and are good democrats still, as "democracy" was and is authoratively expounded. Each formally, by letter, accepted his nomination, and each pledged himself unequivocally to the resolutions of the convention. Mr. Barstow, who subsequently received still higher honors from his party, replied as follows:

I cheerfully and unequivocally state, that I am in favor of the principles set forth in those resolutions. I believe they contain principles which should AT ALL TIMES govern the action of the democratic party, and am ready at all times to advocate and sustain them with whatever ability or influence I may possess, either official or otherwise.
Very respectfully yours, etc.,
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

Were our new neighbors ignorant of this fact in the history of their party, or did they design to give a prominent democratic politician and a townsman a dig under the ribs? Has nobody but the editors of the Gazette and republicans advocated free suffrage in Wisconsin? or are all who have advocated that measure in favor of the social equality of the white and black races?

Who believes that "all men are created free and equal," a declaration whose moral, social, political and logical sequence is, that negroes are every way equal with white men, and therefore, it can be but a simple act of justice to put them on such equality?—Daily Democrat.

Wm. A. Barstow, Nelson Dewey, S. Park Coon, S. W. Beal, J. C. Fairchild, and the democratic state convention of 1849. (See the resolutions of that convention, and the replies of its candidates.)

A POLITICAL TEXT BOOK.—This is a very useful volume for reference. It is compiled by Horace Greeley and John F. Cleveland, and comprises a brief view of presidential nominations and electors, including all the platformes ever yet adopted; also a history of the struggle respecting slavery in the territories, and of the action of congress as to the freedom of the public lands, with the most notable speeches and letters of Messrs. Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, &c., touching the questions of the day; and returns of all presidential elections since 1836. It is intended for all parties and all partizan bias is excluded, and is so conveinent as to be almost a necessity for those who desire to inform themselves upon the political topics of the day. For sale at Newell's Bookstore.

☞ It is thought by some that the "Democrat" sets its coulter too deep for a man who ploughs new ground. That may be true or not, but we should be obliged to its editors if they would furnish the PROOF for the assertions made in the leading editorial article of this morning.

☞ The population of Racine, according to the census, is 7,824, This is 19 more than Janesville, and barely entitles Racine to be called the second city in Wisconsin. If our census takers had taken two or three weeks to hunt up the number necessary, we have no doubt enough might have been found to have placed Janesville ahead of Racine.

National Horse Show.

There was a good exhibition of stock this forenoon, and a larger attendance than yesterday. The principal feature was the trotting of double teams in harness. Three teams were entered—Chieftain, owned by M. F. Patrick of Chicago, and Dick Turpin owned by G. Dutcher, of Madison; a span of chesnut geldings from Milwaukee, and a pair of bays, Ratler and Rowdy, owned by J. M. Leonard and T. W. Brandt of this city.

Chieftain and Dick Turpin and the sorrel span started together, and made a beautiful trot. The first heat was made in 3:11 by Chieftain and Turpin, without breaking.—The second heat by these horses which was relieved by a trial by Ratler and Rowdy, was 2:58½. The Milwaukee horses were beaten several rods.

The the time made by Ratler and Rowdy (who turned the track alone,) was 3:20 first heat, and 3:17 second heat.

The premium was awarded to Messrs. Dutcher and Patrick.

The following premiums, reported after our paper went to press last evening, were awarded on yesterday's exhibition:

Class H.—Stallions, 2 years old. 1st prem., W. J. Pixley, Delevan, Wis.; 2d do, W. C. Hadford, Rockford, Ill.
Class I.—Geldings or fillies, 3 years old. 1st prem., J. M. Leonard, Janesville; 2d do, H. H. Yates, Chicago.
Class J.—Geldings or fillies 2 years old. 1st prem., H. V. McCarger, Magnolia, Wis.; 2d do, J. M. Leonard, Janesville.
Class K.—Geldings or fillies 1 year old. 1st prem., H. B. Fales, Janesville.
Class N.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies under saddle. 1st prem., A. Spink, Chicago—time, 2:48; 2d do, O. H. Heath, Waukegan, Ill., —time, 2:51.
Class V.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies, 3 years old. H. H. Yates, Chicago, "Minnehaha."—no time furnished with "Minnie."

The following is the programme for to-morrow:

FORENOON.
1st. Class F, Single carriage horses to harness.
2d. Class B, Stallion roadsters, 4 years old and upwards.
3d. Class R, Trotting geldings or fillies to harness.
4th. Class Extra No. 1, Trotting tandem.

AFTERNOON.
1st. Class P, Gentlemen's saddle horses.
2d. Class U, Gentlemen equestrians.
3d. LADY EQUESTRIANS.
4th. Award of premiums to lady equestrians.

The exhibition to-morrow will exceed in interest any of the preceding days, and if the weather is good the fair ground will be crowded. The display of lady equestrianism has always been a popular and attractive feature in our local fairs, and with the large number of competitors, the scene tomorrow will be one of exciting interest.—An excellent opportunity to witness not only this, but the other exhibitions on the track will be afforded from the seats erected inside the enclosure.

Aside from the published programme for the day, the Dane Cavalry will make a full dress parade. This company is unquestionably the best cavalry company in the west, and its presence and parade will add to the attractions of the day.

A STATE CONVENTION OF THE WIDE-AWAKES.—The indications are that there will be a very large representation of the Wide-Awake companies of the state at the Seward meeting on the 12th inst., and that the demonstration in the evening will be one of great brilliancy.

The companies from Beloit, Janesville, Whitewater, Elkhorn, Delevan, Waukesha, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Mineral Point, Mazomanie, &c., &c., are expected. The invitation is general to the various companies of the state, and our club here are taking measures to receive their visitors, and render the affair as pleasant for them as possible.

A meeting of the Madison Wide-Awakes was held on Saturday evening, and steps were taken for providing a rendezvous for the companies that may be here on the 12th, where they can leave their uniforms and torches with safety, and where they can assemble and form when the hour arrives for the parade. Our company will spare no pains to see that such of their brethren as attend the Seward meeting are well cared for.—Madison Journal.

YANCEY ON THE DOUGLAS AND K. N. COALITION.—Yancey, in his speech at Memphis, alluded to the coalition between Douglas and the Know Nothings in New York and Kentucky, thus:

"I don't wonder Leslie Coombs asks the Irishmen not to criticise the past too much. I do not much wonder when we think of that bloody and awful August, when fire and faggot, bayonet and bail poured out their blood in the streets of Louisville, amid the shricks of their women and children. [Immense aplpause.] I don't wonder after Know Nothingism had shown its horrid vengeance against these poor foreigners there that Coombs should now say, don't let us criticise the past much. It is my province to say to the foreign population, if you forget the hour when the bones of your wives and children crackled in the flames of Know Nothingism you deserve to be forgotten of your God. [Tremendous applause."]

TOMATO CATSUP.—Take ripe tomatoes, and scald them just sufficient to allow you to take off the skins; then let them stand for a day, covered with salt; strain them through to remove the seeds; then to every two quarts, add three ounces of cloves, two of black pepper, two nutmegs, and a very little Cayenne pepper, with a little salt; boil the liquor for an hour, then let it cool and settle; add a pint of the best cider vinegar, after which, bottle it, corking and sealing it tightly. Keep in a cool place.

ANOTHER WAY.—Take one bushel of tomatoes, and boil them until they are soft; squeeze them through a fine wire sieve, and add half a gallon of vinegar, one pint and a half of salt, two ounces of cloves, quarter of a pound of allspice, two ounces of Cayenne pepper, five heads of garlic skinned and separated; mix together, and boil about three hours, or until reduced to about one half; then bottle without straining.

TO PRESERVE PURPLE PLUMS.—Make a syrup of clean brown sugar; clarify it; when perfectly clear and boiling hot, pour it over the plums, having picked out all unsound ones and stems; let them remain in the syrup two days, then drain it off, make it boiling hot, skim it, and pour it over again; let them remain another day or two, then put them in a preserving-kettle over the fire, and simmer gently until the syrup is reduced, and thick or rich. One pound of sugar for each pound of plums.

For the Daily Gazette.
"See Me."

In the Daily Democrat of Sept. 4th, appeared an article with the above heading, in which the nominee of the republican party for the presidency is ridiculed for remaining at home instead of taking the stump to advocate his claims for that office, like his competitor, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the former and purer days of the republic, modesty was esteemed a virtue; but it seems that such an idea was preposterous and no person in the estimation of democrats, is qualified for the highest office in the gift of the people, unless he is a perfect adept in the games of "bluff" and "brag," and it cannot be said that their candidate is at all deficient in any point necessary to qualify him for the practice of these games. "My great principle" looms far above all other considerations with him, and when that "principle" is fully investigated, its whole substance is found comprised in the single word self; all else is the merest moonshine, as has been proved to the satisfaction of every intelligent man in the nation. In fact, he himself proves it when he says that he is not in favor of giving to the people of the territories, the power to elect their own rulers before they become a state, and denounces all such as wish to do so as usurpers and traitors. If anybody doubts that he said so, let him look at the Congressional Globe of the last session, and he will find it there reported in his speeches.

So that "my great principle" resolves itself into "my great self;" and my great self, rings only and continually, with a thousand variations, "Come and see me;" "See me, for I am the great High Priest of democracy; see me, for I repealed the Missouri compromise line; see me, for I gave to slavery, territory five times the state of New York; see me, for I introduced a bill into the United States Senate for the revival of the alien and sedition laws; see me, for I introduced another bill for the imprisonment of all persons neglecting to return fugitive slaves to their masters, knowing them to be such; see me, for I voted against the repeal of the laws of the territory of New Mexico, declaring all white laboring men and women slaves; see me, for I applauded disunion sentiments uttered by southern senators; see me, for I am in close cammunion with Arch Bishop Hughes; see me for I am a continuation of Japhet in seagch of his father," as I am search of my mother, see me, for I "played smart" with the arrangements of politicians at Charleston and Baltimore; See me, for I was a traitor to the noble Broderick, and even after death would not vindicate his character; Oh, come and see me all ye people, for I am the nominee of one side of the "great unterrified" for the office of president, and if I ever get to the White House see how deep your pockets are, and then see you all in a place that shall be nameless. J. B. K.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

GOV. SEWARD'S PARTY FOR THE WEST.—The Auburn Adveriser learns, from a responsible source, that Lieut. Govenor Patterson and Gen. Nye, of New York, together with the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, of Quincy, Mass., and his son C. F. Adams, Esq., of Boston, so also Geo. E. Baker, Esq. of Albany, will accompany the Governor on his western excursion.

A PROSPEROUS JOURNAL.—The proprietors of the Chicago Press and Tribune, who, a year ago last November were obliged to ask an extension on a large amount of debt announce that the last dollar of that dept was paid off in full, principal and interest, last week, and that beyond the ordinary current accounts paid monthly, they owe no man a dollar.

Two thousand seven hundred hogs are being fattened in Lucas county, Iowa, by D. N. Smith. A large drove for one man to own.

A correspondent of the Western Christian Advocate, speaking of Superior city, on the western termination on the Lake, adds: "The location of this city is charming, superior to any on the Lake. Population 800, subsisting mainly by selling lots to one another."

Mr. Winans, of Baltimore, intends to build a hotel in that city costing a million dollars. He intends to make it superior to any hotel in the country.

BRECKINRIDGE STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY.—The Breckinridge wing of the democracy meet in state convention, at the St. Charles hotel in this city at 3 p. m. to-day. The leaders of this faction have gathered here in great force, for them—some say as high as 200, others 100, while others insist that it is 10 or 12. But the latter estimate must be regarded as the base coinage of some malicious mind—at all events they comprise the most respectable and able members of the democratic party, what there is left of it. Hon. Thomas Campbell, of Illinois, who is said to be quite a gun, is to address them. Among the men of note we observe E. Fox Cook, E. A. Calkins, of the Argus, E. B. Dean, Mr. Van Dyke and many others.—Wisconsin of Tuesday.

We are glad to see our esteemed friend, Hon. Luther Hanchett of Portage county, put in nomination for congress by the republicans of the 2d district. We have had opportunities during two sessions of the legislature, of witnessing the soundness and efficiency of Mr. Hanchett's labors as a law maker and legislator. We take pleasure, therefore, in saying that in our judgment the republicans of the 2d district have recognized the obligation that rested upon them, and which rests upon all parties that have overwhelming majorities in nominating their best man.

Mr. H. is 35 years of age—a native of the Buckeye State—a good lawyer, a good speaker and an honest and honorable man. His election is certain.—Home League.

NEW LINE OF EXPORTS.—We saw on the docks of Newberry & Goodell yesterday 18,000 feet of seasoned white oak and butternut lumber, for cabinet makers use. This came from Chilton on the east shore of Lake Winnebago and is destined for New York city. Should this venture prove profitable it will be followed up by other shipments; we have forests of oak, maple and other valuable timber in this region, sufficient to supply any demand—and we are glad to see this indication of its being brought into use. We notice almost daily large arrivals of staves for shipment; we fear the advanced rates for freights may have a discouraging effect upon this article of export—but hope it may not.—Green Bay Press.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 5.

The Breckinridge state convention yesterday was attended by about 150 delegates from all parts of the state. Hon. G. B. Judd, of Racine, presided. A full electoral ticket was put in nomination. Electors at Large—Samuel Elmore, of Milwaukee, and Napoleon B. Van Slyke, of Madison. 1st district, Isaac J. Ullman, of Racine. 2nd district, H. D. Barron, of Pepin. 3rd district, H. S. Pierpont, of Manitowoc. Great harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. In the evening the convention was addressed for three hours by Hon. Thompson Campbell, of Illinois.

CAPE RACE, Sept. 4.

The steamship America from Liverpool Aug. 25th, via Queenstown 26th, passed this place at 3 o'clock Tuesday, and was boarded by the news yacht of the associated press.

The steamship Prince Albert from New York 14th, via St. Johns, N. F., arrived at Galway on the 24th. The Prince Albert was to take the place of the Connaught, leaving Galway on the 28th for St. Johns and New York. The America's news is unimportant.

The invasion of Calabria by Garabaldi is fully confirmed. The town of Regio had been attacked and taken by Garabaldi. 4,000 Calabrian insurgents had joined the Garabaldians, a general battle with the Neapolitans was imminent. The emperor and empress of France had gone to Savoy and Nice. It was said a French corps de arms of 10,000 men with campaign materials and artillery was ordered to be ready to move on short notice.

The weather in England had been most unfavorable, but was fairer when the America sailed.

LIVERPOOL.—The British Parliament was to be prorogued on the 28th.

Saturday was an art day in London.

The Asia arrived from New York at Queenstown on the 26th.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.

Flour receipts 94,000 bbls., market opened 5c higher and closed scarcely so firm, sales 17,000 bbls at 5,80a5,90 for extra state, 5,05a5,65 super western, 5,80a6,00 common to medium extra western. Wheat market opened better with fair enquiry and closed quiet, with holders disposed to insist on full prices, sales 16,000 bushels at 1,25a1,30 for Chicago spring, 1,28 in store for all Milwaukee club, 1,30a1,34 for unsound.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF DAY.

In compliance with many requests, and what is believed to be a general desire among the republicans of the county, the convention to nominate county officers has been postponed until

THURSDAY, THE 13TH INST.

This change has been made to accommodate those who desire to visit Madison on the 12th to hear Gov. Seward, and who, as delegates or otherwise, wish to attend the convention.

It is hoped that no confusion will arise from this change of day, as notice will be given in time to reach most, if not all, the delegates; but if any of the delegates should be present here on the 12th, a single day's delay will be the extent of their trouble.

THEY WORK TOGETHER.—The Douglas men and the know nothings, north and south, work together. They are getting up fusions in their electoral tickets; and quite recently, Mr. Goggin, the nominee of the know nothing party of Virginia at the last gubernatorial election, has declared for Douglas. We quote the following paragraph from the New York Express, the organ of the American party in the north, to show how that party proposes to help Douglas in Indiana:—

VEVAY, Ind., Aug. 22, 1860.

To the Editors of the N. Y. Express:

The union fires are burning brightly out here, and since the formation of our electoral ticket large numbers are being added to our ranks; if we do no more, we may at least give the state to Douglas.

INDIANA.

Why do they work together? It must be because their principles are identical. Hear what Douglas says about it:

"I am asked why do I not advise my friends to make a union ticket with the secessionists. Why don't you make oil and water mix? A union ticket between the interventionists and the non-interventionists! Never on earth. I am willing to act with all men WHO AGREE WITH ME IN PRINCIPLE."

AN OVERSIGHT.—Our new neighbors, over the river, assert in one column that Abraham Lincoln is in favor of negro equality. In the next column they say that Lincoln does not believe in the social and political equality of the white and black races. This is no doubt an oversight.—They certainly would not desire to convict themselves of misstating Lincoln's position in so glaring a manner. They undoubtedly intended one statement for the "abolitionists," and the other for those who dislike the African race. Such contradictions ought not to go out together. Somebody will, we fear, accuse the "Democrat" of lying, if it does not put more space between its stories.

☞ We fail to recognise the nice distinction drawn by the "Democrat" in relation to courtesy and good breeding. Cannot discourtesy and ill-manners be discountenced when applied to another? Must it always be used personally towards ourselves, before it is proper to condemn it? For instance, the "Democrat" of this morning applies the approbrious epithets of "tory" and "traitor" to Abraham Lincoln—now we consider this discourteous, not only towards Mr. Lincoln, but to his friends. We not only think so, but in our opinion it exhibits a rudeness and incivility unbecoming a public journal. We believe the "Democrat" is the first paper of its party which has used such language towards Mr. Lincoln during this campaign.

Lamartine is reported to have said, that at the end of a century the only book possible will be a newspaper;

Synopsis of Telegraphic News.

San Francisco dates to Aug. 22, received. Senator Latham has declared for Breckinridge. The political newspapers stand 24 for Douglas, 21 for Breckinridge, 7 for Lincoln and 3 for Bell. The Secretary of Orgon has refused to issue the certificate of election to Shiels, elected to congress, on account of the election being premature and unauthorized by law.

Garibaldi has landed in Calabria, and had met with success.

Advices from Constantinople, Aug. 8th, state that twenty churches and three convents were burned at Balonect, during the recent disturbances. Male christians were murdered and the women outraged. The Turkish troops sent to preserve order were assisting in the outrages. The Musselmen population of Damascus, as late as July 28th, maintained a menacing attitude.—Large bodies of fanatics were parading the town, demanding the surrender of the christians, who had sought refuge in the citadel. Troops dispatched from Beyrout had not yet arrived.

Edward Thode, a fugitive Russian defaulter, for whose arrest a reward of $25,000 was offered by the Russian government, was arrested in New York on the 3d.—$50,000 in Russian paper was found in his possession.

Napoleon has proposed a congress to settle the Italian question. The city of Shanghai is protected by the allies. The Chinese rebels are making progress and trade with the interior is stopped.

Senator Polk addressed a large crowd in Lexington, Mo., on Tuesday, in favor of Breckinridge.

Dates from New Mexico to the 21st have been received.

A campaign against the Navajoo Indians will be made this fall. The citizens will raise one thousand volunteers, independent of the regular army. Weather continues dry in that country, there being no rain for some time. The crops are suffering for the want of it.

STRIKING AT RANDOM.—The new editors of the Democrat are not yet sufficiently posted in the politics in Wisconsin to deal their blows without hitting their own friends. In their issue of this morning, they are suffering under a severe attack of negro equality, and find all sorts of horrors likely to result from the ascendancy of republicanism. Let us call attention to a little scrap of democratic history in this state.

In 1849, when the democracy were coquetting with, wooed and embraced Booth, as well as the free soil party, a democratic state convention passed a series of resolutions as strongly tinctured with the monster of abolitionism as ever were adopted outside of a meeting of Garrisonians.—Among the resolutions was the following:

Resolved, THAT WE HOLD TO AND ADVOCATE THE DOCTRINE OF FREE AND EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

The convention which adopted this resolution nominated Nelson Dewey for Governor, Samuel W. Beal for Lieut. Governor, Wm. A. Barstow for Secretary of State, S. Park Coon for Attorney General, and J. C. Fairchild for Treasurer. These men were good democrats then, and are good democrats still, as "democracy" was and is authoratively expounded. Each formally, by letter, accepted his nomination, and each pledged himself unequivocally to the resolutions of the convention. Mr. Barstow, who subsequently received still higher honors from his party, replied as follows:

I cheerfully and unequivocally state, that I am in favor of the principles set forth in those resolutions. I believe they contain principles which should AT ALL TIMES govern the action of the democratic party, and am ready at all times to advocate and sustain them with whatever ability or influence I may possess, either official or otherwise.

Very respectfully yours, etc.,
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

Were our new neighbors ignorant of this fact in the history of their party, or did they design to give a prominent democratic politician and a townsman a dig under the ribs? Has nobody but the editors of the Gazette and republicans advocated free suffrage in Wisconsin? or are all who have advocated that measure in favor of the social equality of the white and black races?

Who believes that "all men are created free and equal," a declaration whose moral, social, political and logical sequence is, that negroes are every way equal with white men, and therefore, it can be but a simple act of justice to put them on such equality?—Daily Democrat.

Wm. A. Barstow, Nelson Dewey, S. Park Coon, S. W. Beal, J. C. Fairchild, and the democratic state convention of 1849. (See the resolutions of that convention, and the replies of its candidates.)

A POLITICAL TEXT BOOK.—This is a very useful volume for reference. It is compiled by Horace Greeley and John F. Cleveland, and comprises a brief view of presidential nominations and electors, including all the platformes ever yet adopted; also a history of the struggle respecting slavery in the territories, and of the action of congress as to the freedom of the public lands, with the most notable speeches and letters of Messrs. Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, &c., touching the questions of the day; and returns of all presidential elections since 1836. It is intended for all parties and all partizan bias is excluded, and is so conveinent as to be almost a necessity for those who desire to inform themselves upon the political topics of the day. For sale at Newell's Bookstore.

☞ It is thought by some that the "Democrat" sets its coulter too deep for a man who ploughs new ground. That may be true or not, but we should be obliged to its editors if they would furnish the PROOF for the assertions made in the leading editorial article of this morning.

☞ The population of Racine, according to the census, is 7,824, This is 19 more than Janesville, and barely entitles Racine to be called the second city in Wisconsin. If our census takers had taken two or three weeks to hunt up the number necessary, we have no doubt enough might have been found to have placed Janesville ahead of Racine.

National Horse Show.

There was a good exhibition of stock this forenoon, and a larger attendance than yesterday. The principal feature was the trotting of double teams in harness. Three teams were entered—Chieftain, owned by M. F. Patrick of Chicago, and Dick Turpin owned by G. Dutcher, of Madison; a span of chesnut geldings from Milwaukee, and a pair of bays, Ratler and Rowdy, owned by J. M. Leonard and T. W. Brandt of this city.

Chieftain and Dick Turpin and the sorrel span started together, and made a beautiful trot. The first heat was made in 3:11 by Chieftain and Turpin, without breaking.—The second heat by these horses which was relieved by a trial by Ratler and Rowdy, was 2:58½. The Milwaukee horses were beaten several rods.

The the time made by Ratler and Rowdy (who turned the track alone,) was 3:20 first heat, and 3:17 second heat.

The premium was awarded to Messrs. Dutcher and Patrick.

The following premiums, reported after our paper went to press last evening, were awarded on yesterday's exhibition:

Class H.—Stallions, 2 years old. 1st prem., W. J. Pixley, Delevan, Wis.; 2d do, W. C. Hadford, Rockford, Ill.

Class I.—Geldings or fillies, 3 years old. 1st prem., J. M. Leonard, Janesville; 2d do, H. H. Yates, Chicago.

Class J.—Geldings or fillies 2 years old. 1st prem., H. V. McCarger, Magnolia, Wis.; 2d do, J. M. Leonard, Janesville.

Class K.—Geldings or fillies 1 year old. 1st prem., H. B. Fales, Janesville.

Class N.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies under saddle. 1st prem., A. Spink, Chicago—time, 2:48; 2d do, O. H. Heath, Waukegan, Ill., —time, 2:51.

Class V.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies, 3 years old. H. H. Yates, Chicago, "Minnehaha."—no time furnished with "Minnie."

The following is the programme for tomorrow:

FORENOON.

1st. Class F, Single carriage horses to harness.
2d. Class B, Stallion roadsters, 4 years old and upwards.
3d. Class R, Trotting geldings or fillies to harness.
4th. Class Extra No. 1, Trotting tandem.

AFTERNOON.

1st. Class P, Gentlemen's saddle horses.
2d. Class U, Gentlemen equestrians.
3d. LADY EQUESTRIANS.
4th. Award of premiums to lady equestrians.

The exhibition to-morrow will exceed in interest any of the preceding days, and if the weather is good the fair ground will be crowded. The display of lady equestrianism has always been a popular and attractive feature in our local fairs, and with the large number of competitors, the scene tomorrow will be one of exciting interest.—An excellent opportunity to witness not only this, but the other exhibitions on the track will be afforded from the seats erected inside the enclosure.

Aside from the published programme for the day, the Dane Cavalry will make a full dress parade. This company is unquestionably the best cavalry company in the west, and its presence and parade will add to the attractions of the day.

A STATE CONVENTION OF THE WIDE-AWAKES.—The indications are that there will be a very large representation of the Wide-Awake companies of the state at the Seward meeting on the 12th inst., and that the demonstration in the evening will be one of great brilliancy.

The companies from Beloit, Janesville, Whitewater, Elkhorn, Delevan, Waukesha, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Mineral Point, Mazomanie, &c., &c., are expected, The invitation is general to the various companies of the state, and our club here are taking measures to receive their visitors, and render the affair as pleasant for them as possible.

A meeting of the Madison Wide-Awakes was held on Saturday evening, and steps were taken for providing a rendezvous for the companies that may be here on the 12th, where they can leave their uniforms and torches with safety, and where they can assemble and form when the hour arrives for the parade. Our company will spare no pains to see that such of their brethren as attend the Seward meeting are well cared for.—Madison Journal.

YANCEY ON THE DOUGLAS AND K. N. COALITION.—Yancey, in his speech at Memphis, alluded to the coalition between Douglas and the Know Nothings in New York and Kentucky, thus:

"I don't wonder Leslie Coombs asks the Irishmen not to criticise the past too much. I do not much wonder when we think of that bloody and awful August, when fire and faggot, bayonet and ball poured out their blood in the streets of Louisville, amid the shrieks of their women and children. [Immense aplpause.] I don't wonder after Know Nothingism had shown its horrid vengeance against these poor foreigners there that Coombs should now say, don't let us criticise the past much. It is my province to say to the foreign population, if you forget the hour when the bones of your wives and children crackled in the flames of Know Nothingism you deserve to be forgotten of your God. [Tremendous applause."]

TOMATO CATSUP.—Take ripe tomatoes, and scald them just sufficient to allow you to take off the skins; then let them stand for a day, covered with salt; strain them through to remove the seeds; then to every two quarts, add three ounces of cloves, two of black pepper, two nutmegs, and a very little Cayenne pepper, with a little salt; boil the liquor for an hour, then let it cool and settle; add a pint of the best cider vinegar, after which, bottle it, corking and sealing it tightly. Keep in a cool place.

ANOTHER WAY.—Take one bushel of tomatoes, and boil them until they are soft; squeeze them through a fine wire sieve, and add half a gallon of vinegar, one pint and a half of salt, two ounces of cloves, quarter of a pound of allspice, two ounces of Cayenne pepper, five heads of garlic skinned and separated; mix together, and boil about three hours, or until reduced to about one half; then bottle without straining.

TO PRESERVE PURPLE PLUMS.—Make a syrup of clean brown sugar; clarify it; when perfectly clear and boiling hot, pour it over the plums, having picked out all unsound ones and stems; let them remain in the syrup two days, then drain it off, make it boiling hot, skim it, and pour it over again; let them remain another day or two, then put them in a preserving-kettle over the fire, and simmer gently until the syrup is reduced, and thick or rich. One pound of sugar for each pound of plums.

For the Daily Gazette.

"See Me."

In the Daily Democrat of Sept. 4th, appeared an article with the above heading, in which the nominee of the republican party for the presidency is ridiculed for remaining at home instead of taking the stump to advocate his claims for that office, like his competitor, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the former and purer days of the republic, modesty was esteemed a virtue; but it seems that such an idea was preposterous and no person in the estimation of democrats, is qualified for the highest office in the gift of the people, unless he is a perfect adept in the games of "bluff" and "brag," and it cannot be said that their candidate is at all deficient in any point necessary to qualify him for the practice of these games. "My great principle" looms far above all other considerations with him, and when that "principle" is fully investigated, its whole substance is found comprised in the single word self; all else is the merest moonshine, as has been proved to the satisfaction of every intelligent man in the nation. In fact, he himself proves it when he says that he is not in favor of giving to the people of the territories, the power to elect their own rulers before they become a state, and denounces all such as wish to do so as usurpers and traitors. If anybody doubts that he said so, let him look at the Congressional Globe of the last session, and he will find it there reported in his speeches.

So that "my great principle" resolves it self into "my great self;" and my great self, rings only and continually, with a thousand variations, "Come and see me;" "See me, for I am the great High Priest of democracy; see me, for I repealed the Missouri compromise line; see me, for I gave to slavery, territory five times the state of New York; see me, for I introduced a bill into the United States Senate for the revival of the alien and sedition laws; see me, for I introduced another bill for the imprisonment of all persons neglecting to return fugitive slaves to their masters, knowing them to be such; see me, for I voted against the repeal of the laws of the territory of New Mexico, declaring all white laboring men and women slaves; see me, for I applauded disunion sentiments uttered by southern senators; see me, for I am in close communion with Arch Bishop Hughes; see me for I am a continuation of Japhet in seagch of his father," as I am search of my mother, see me, for I "played smart" with the arrangements of politicians at Charleston and Baltimore; See me, for I was a traitor to the noble Broderick, and even after death would not vindicate his character; Oh, come and see me all ye people, for I am the nomineo of one side of the "great unterrified" for the office of president, and if I ever get to the White House see how deep your pockets are, and then see you all in a place that shall be nameless. J. B. K.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

GOV. SEWARD'S PARTY FOR THE WEST.—The Auburn Adveriser learns, from a responsible source, that Lieut. Govenor Patterson and Gen. Nye, of New York, together with the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, of Quincy, Mass., and his son C. F. Adams, Esq., of Boston, so also Geo. E. Baker, Esq. of Albany, will accompany the Governor on his western excursion.

A PROSPEROUS JOURNAL.—The proprietors of the Chicago Press and Tribune, who, a year ago last November were obliged to ask an extension on a large amount of debt announce that the last dollar of that dept was paid off in full, principal and interest, last week, and that beyond the ordinary current accounts paid monthly, they owe no man a dollar.

Two thousand seven hundred hogs are being fattened in Lucas county, Iowa, by D. N. Smith. A large drove for one man to own.

A correspondent of the Western Christian Advocate, speaking of Superior city, on the western termination on the Lake, adds: "The location of this city is charming, superior to any on the Lake. Population 800, subsisting mainly by selling lots to one another."

Mr. Winans, of Baltimore, intends to build a hotel in that city costing a million dollars. He intends to make it superior to any hotel in the country.

BRECKINRIDGE STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY.—The Breckinridge wing of the democracy meet in state convention, at the St. Charles hotel in this city at 3 p. m, to-day. The leaders of this faction have gathered here in great force, for them—some say as high as 200, others 100, while others insist that it is 10 or 12. But the latter estimate must be regarded as the base coinage of some malicious mind—at all events they comprise the most respectable and able members of the democratic party, what there is left of it. Hon. Thomas Campbell, of Illinois, who is said to be quite a gun, is to address them. Among the men of note we observe E. Fox Cook, E. A. Calkins, of the Argus, E. B. Dean, Mr. Van Dyke and many others.—Wisconsin of Tuesday.

We are glad to see our esteemed friend, Hon. Luther Hanchett of Portage county, put in nomination for congress by the republicans of the 2d district. We have had opportunities during two sessions of the legislature, of witnessing the soundness and efficiency of Mr. Hanchett's labors as a law maker and legislator. We take pleasure, therefore, in saying that in our judgment the republicans of the 2d district have recognized the obligation that rested upon them, and which rests upon all parties that have overwhelming majorities in nominating their best man.

Mr. H. is 35 years of age—a native of the Buckeye State—a good lawyer, a good speaker and an honest and honorable man. His election is certain.—Home League.

NEW LINE OF EXPORTS.—We saw on the docks of Newberry & Goodell yesterday 18,000 feet of seasoned white oak and butternut lumber, for cabinet makers use. This came from Chilton on the east shore of Lake Winnebago and is destined for New York city. Should this venture prove profitable it will be followed up by other shipments; we have forests of oak, maple and other valuable timber in this region, sufficient to supply any demand—and we are glad to see this indication of its being brought into use. We notice almost daily large arrivals of staves for shipment; we fear the advanced rates for freights may have a discouraging effect upon this article of export—but hope it may not.—Green Bay Press.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. [illegible]

The Breckinridge state convention yesterday was attended by about 150 delegates from all parts of the state. Hon. G. [illegible] Judd, of Racine, presided. A full electoral ticket was put in nomination. Electors at Large—Samuel Elmore, of Milwaukee, and Napoleon B. Van Slyke, of Madison, 1st district, Isaac J. Ullman, of Racine. 2nd district, H. D. Barron, of Pepin. 3rd district, H. S. Pierpont, of Manitowoc. Great harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. In the evening the convention was addressed for three hours by Hon. Thompson Campbell, of Illinois.

CAPE RACE, Sept. 4.

The steamship America from Liverpool Aug. 25th, via Queenstown 26th, passed this place at 3 o'clock Tuesday, and was boarded by the news yacht of the associated press.

The steamship Prince Albert from New York 14th, via St. Johns, N. F., arrived at Galway on the 24th. The Prince Albert was to take the place of the Connaught, leaving Galway on the 28th for St. Johns and New York. The America's news is unimportant.

The invasion of Calabria by Garabaldi is fully confirmed. The town of Regio had been attacked and taken by Garabaldi. 4,000 Calabrian insurgents had joined the Garabaldians, a general battle with the Neapolitans was imminent. The emperor and empress of France had gone to Savoy and Nice. It was said a French corps de arms of 10,000 men with campaign materials and artillery was ordered to be ready to move on short notice.

The weather in England had been most unfavorable, but was fairer when the America sailed.

LIVERPOOL.—The British Parliament was to be prorogued on the 28th.

Saturday was an art day in London.

The Asia arrived from New York at Queenstown on the 26th.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Republican County Convention.

The Republicans of Rock County will meet in convention by their delegates at the Court Room, in Janesville, on WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of September next, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate candidates for County Officers. The respective towns and wards will be entitled to delegates as follows:

Avon,	2	Harmony,	3
Beloit, town,	2	Janesville, town,	2
Beloit City, 1st ward,	4	Johnstown,	4
2d ward,	2	Lima,	3
3d ward,	2	Magnolia,	4
4th ward,	2	Milton,	4
Bradford,	3	Newark,	3
Center,	3	Plymouth,	3
Clinton,	4	Union,	4
Fulton,	4	La Prairie,	3
Jan'sv'e City, 1st ward,	3	Porter,	3
2d ward,	2	Rock,	3
3d ward,	2	Spring Valley,	3
4th ward,	4	Turtle,	4

The county committee would recommend that the delegates to this convention be chosen in the different towns and wards on Saturday, the 8th of September, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the place of holding the last annual town meeting, where a different time is not designated by the proper town committees.

The question of a new apportionment to correct the inequalities of former representations was discussed by the committee; but in view of the difficulty of making any changes without full returns of the census just taken, it is deemed advisable to adopt the apportionment of the last convention as likely to lead to less complaint than a partial change or an entire change made without the necessary information.

B. E. HALE, Chairman.
CHARLES HOLT, Secretary.

Postponement.

To allow the delegates and other republicans of Rock county interested in this convention an opportunity to attend the meeting at Madison on the 12th, this convention has been postponed until THURSDAY, the 12th day of September inst. B. E. HALE, Chairman.
Sept. 3, 1860. CHAS. HOLT, Secretary.

OUR NEXT PUBLICATION.—To give the workmen in our office and ourselves an opportunity to witness the exhibition at the fair ground to-morrow afternoon, to-morrow's Gazette will be issued at noon. Those who desire the use of our columns to-morrow "will take notice and govern themselves accordingly."

Chicago Zouaves.

In compliance with the invitation extended by the executive committee of the national fair, on behalf of the citizens of Janesville, to the Zouave Cadets of Chicago to visit the city, a portion of the company arrived this morning. The loss of time suffered by the recent eastern trip of the company has prevented the acceptance of the invitation by as large a number of the company as was desired by them or expected by our citizens, and a sufficient number are not present to warrant a field parade. Arrangements, however, have been made for an exhibition of their peculiar drill at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. The members of the company present are under the command of of Dr. Charles A. de Willers, surgeon of the cadets, who was with the French army in Algiers (where this peculiar organization originated) for eight years, and who held a major's commission in that army, and who has instructed the officers of the cadets in the drill which has given them a national reputation. This exhibition will include the sword, bayonet and other exercises; in short, everything but a company movement on a field parade.

To prevent the hall being filled by a crowd of boys and others, to the exclusion of ladies or families who may desire to witness their unequaled exercises, a small admission fee will be charged, which will be announced in a poster.

The exercises of the cadets will be upon the stage in the hall, which will leave the galleries and the body of the hall to the quiet possession of the audience. Those who wish to witness without the inconvenience and discomfort of an outside crowd what has attracted the attention and admiration of thousands will find the opportunity now offered a very favorable one.

P. S. Since the above was written and just as we go to press, we learn that the Cadets will appear on the fair grounds to-morrow, and go through with their evolutions. We presume, however, the drill at the hall in the evening will take place as announced, where a more favorable opportunity for a small audience will be afforded than at the fair. If any different arrangement is made, and the drill in the hall is dispensed with, we shall make an announcement of the fact to-morrow.

A FINE HEIFER.—While so much attention is directed to the animals on exhibition at the national fair, "a horse of another color" is worthy of a passing notice. A day or two ago, Geo. A. Young purchased one of the best heifers ever raised in Wisconsin. It is a Durham, five years old, was raised by J. G. Scofield of the town of Plymouth, and is estimated to weigh between 1700 and 1800 lbs. This heifer will be killed to-night, and offered for sale at Mr. Young's market, on the bridge, to-morrow morning. More than one family will have a good dinner, sure.

CARD WRITING.—We have examined specimens of Mr. Lowell's card writing, and have seen none executed in better taste.—We cheerfully commend him to such as wish to procure visiting or wedding cards written in a style equal to engraving. See advertising column.

CIRCUS.—This week seems likely to be a lively one. After the fair closes, a circus is coming. An advertisement in to-day's paper tells what are its merits and attractions, and when it will be exhibited. The tent will be pitched, we understand, on the public square. See the advertisement.

REFRESHMENTS.—Visitors to the fair ground will find good entertainment at Floral Hall, the particulars of which will be ascertained by consulting the advertisement of J. M. Kimball & Co.

FAIR BALL.—Among the amusements incident to the fair is a dance this and to-morrow evening at the court room. The price, $1.00, is cheap enough for a general participation.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Milwaukee and Mississippi road has changed its time table. Trains leave for Madison and Prairie du Chien at 2:15 A. M., and 1:40 P. M. For Milwaukee 7:50 A. M. and 1:40 P. M.

DANE CAVALRY.—This fine company arrived to-day, and will make a full dress parade to-morrow on the fair grounds. A rare treat is in store for the visitors to the fair.

ATTENTION WIDE AWAKES!

THERE WILL BE A

Grand Street Drill

On Thursday Evening, Sept. 6th.

Every member will be at the Hall at 7½ o'clock, fully equipt.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

Republican Club Meeting.

There will be a business meeting of the Janesville City Republican Club held at the court room on Saturday evening, Sept. 8th. This meeting is called for the purpose of making complete arrangements for conducting the present campaign in this city. It is very necessary that every republican in the city should be present if possible.

It will be determined at this meeting whether this campaign shall be so conducted as to ensure us a large republican majority in this city or not.

We very much hope that the republicans of the city will not regard this meeting as an ordinary business meeting and of no importance, but that every one will be present to assist in its deliberations.

R. B. TREAT, Pres't.
A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.—At the next meeting of the republican club, a notice for which will be found in another column, it is proposed to take measures for organising for the campaign. It is a subject of importance and it is desirable that its consideration should come before a full meeting of the club. We would, therefore, urge every member to attend.

A SALUTE.—Harry Bingham, of Madison, came with the Dane Cavalry this morning, and brought his "baby-waker" with him. At noon, he gave our citizens a test of its quality, in the shape of a salute—at the foot of Pleasant street bridge. When "worked" to its capacity, it gave 4 rounds in a minute. The "waker" is worthy of Harry; Harry is worthy of the Cavalry; and the Cavalry is an honor to the state. Altogether, the visit of the Cavalry is a No. 1 affair.

BEAUTIFUL GOODS.—Webb & Lee, whose advertisement we publish this afternoon, have a new stock of goods of unusual beauty and value. The selection was made by one of the partners, and when such articles as they now offer can find purchasers, (as they will,) it is an unquestioned evidence of returning good times. A visit to their store will afford a real gratification.

MASONIC.—The regular meeting of the Janesville Commandary A. K. T. will be held this evening, Wednesday Sept. 5th at 7½ o'clock.

At a meeting, held by the barbers of Janesville, on the 16th of August last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we will not open our shops any more on the sabbath; to take effect on next sabbath, Sept. 9th.

RECEIVED THIS DAY AT NEWELL'S.—The Political Text Book for 1860, also a large lot of classical text books and miscellaneous books.

Floral Hall.

GREAT ATTRACTION!

Ladies' Equestrian Fair.—Floral Hall, situated in the center of the fair grounds, has been put in excellent order for the accommodation of Ladies and Gentlemen visiting the fair on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th of September. The interior has been thoroughly renovated and two hundred and fifty chairs, with a large number of tables, are provided for family parties who desire refreshments. A large private appartment is appropriated especially for the use of ladies, with females in attendance. Chairs are also placed upon the balcony surrounding the cupola, giving parties a fine view of the entire grounds. As an additional inducement for patronizing "Floral Hall," the proprietors will distribute Fifty Presents, valued at Five Hundred Dollars to the patrons of this establishment. The Presents will be given out on Friday the 7th of September, at 4 o'clock, by a committee appointed for that purpose, who will distribute the same to the patrons upon such plan as they may deem most proper. Should a present fall to the lot of any one not in attendance at the time of the distribution, the committee will retain the same until called for. The articles to be presented are now on exhibition at the Jewelry Store of S. C. Spaulding, Esq., of this city, where they will remain until the day of presentation. [au81d1w]. J. F. KIMBALL & CO.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market,

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY
BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 5, 1860.

There was a large falling off in receipts of wheat to-day from yesterday, only about 2500 bushels being on the market during the day. Prices ruled steady at yesterday's quotations until towards night when, from some cause or other, buyers lowered their views 1@2c on shipping grades, closing at 78@80c. Milling samples were scarce and in demand at 83@85c to mills. Receipts of oats and corn were fair and market dull at 30@32c for corn and 15@17c for oats.

The large decrease in receipts, we think is owing partly to the National Horse Show which is now exhibiting in this city, and mostly to the wet rainy weather during the forepart of the day.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 83a85; common to fair shipping 78a80.

CORN—shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. Ear 20a25c per 70 lbs.

OATS—dull at 15a17c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—good samples in demand at 37½a44c per 50 lbs., common quality 25a30.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—very scarce at 13a15.

EGGS—owing to a better supply have declined to 5a6c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 5½; Dry, salted, 10; Dry, flint, 12 to 13.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little comming forward.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33⅓	℘ ct
2d " " "	1858,	50	"
3d " " "	1859,	50	"
4th " " "	1860,	45	"

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,	$570,363 43
" 1857, " " "	649,719 54
" 1858, " " "	751,808 52
" 1859, " " "	905,681 84
" 1860, " " "	993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHANGE OF DAY.

In compliance with many requests, and what is believed to be a general desire among the republicans of the county, the convention to nominate county officers has been postponed until

THURSDAY, THE 13TH INST.

This change has been made to accommodate those who desire to visit Madison on the 12th to hear Gov. Seward, and who, as delegates or otherwise, wish to attend the convention.

It is hoped that no confusion will arise from this change of day, as notice will be given in time to reach most, if not all, the delegates: but if any of the delegates should be present here on the 12th, a single day's delay will be the extent of their trouble.

THEY WORK TOGETHER.—The Douglas men and the know nothings, north and south, work together. They are getting up fusions in their electoral tickets; and quite recently, Mr. Goggin, the nominee of the know nothing party of Virginia at the last gubernatorial election, has declared for Douglas. We quote the following paragraph from the New York Express, the organ of the American party in the north, to show how that party proposes to help Douglas in Indiana:—

VEVAY, Ind., Aug. 22, 1860.
To the Editors of the N. Y. Express:

The union fires are burning brightly out here, and since the formation of our electoral ticket large numbers are being added to our ranks; if we do no more, we may at least give the state to Douglas.

INDIANA.

Why do they work together? It must be because their principles are identical. Hear what Douglas says about it:

"I am asked why do I not advise my friends to make a union ticket with the secessionists. Why don't you make oil and water mix? A union ticket between the interventionists and the non-interventionists! Never on earth. I am willing to act with all men WHO AGREE WITH ME IN PRINCIPLE."

AN OVERSIGHT.—Our new neighbors, over the river, assert in one column that Abraham Lincoln is in favor of negro equality. In the next column they say that Lincoln does not believe in the social and political equality of the white and black races. This is no doubt an oversight.—They certainly would not desire to convict themselves of misstating Lincoln's position in so glaring a manner. They undoubtedly intended one statement for the "abolitionists," and the other for those who dislike the African race. Such contradictions ought not to go out together. Somebody will, we fear, accuse the "Democrat" of lying, if it does not put more space between its stories.

☞ We fail to recognise the nice distinction drawn by the "Democrat" in relation to courtesy and good breeding. Cannot discourtesy and ill-manners be discountenced when applied to another? Must it always be used personally towards ourselves, before it is proper to condemn it? For instance, the "Democrat" of this morning applies the approbrious epithets of "tory" and "traitor" to Abraham Lincoln—now we consider this discourteous, not only towards Mr. Lincoln, but to his friends. We not only think so, but in our opinion it exhibits a rudeness and incivility unbecoming a public journal. We believe the "Democrat" is the first paper of its party which has used such language towards Mr. Lincoln during this campaign.

Lamartine is reported to have said, that at the end of a century the only book posible will be a newspaper.

Synopsis of Telegraphic News.

San Francisco dates to Aug. 22, received. Senator Latham has declared for Breckinridge. The political newspapers stand 24 for Douglas, 21 for Breckinridge, 7 for Lincoln and 3 for Bell. The Secretary of Orgon has refused to issue the certificate of election to Shiels, elected to congress, on account of the election being premature and unauthorized by law.

Garibaldi has landed in Calabria, and had met with success.

Advices from Constantinople, Aug. 5th, state that twenty churches and three convents were burned at Baloneet, during the recent disturbances. Male christians were murdered and the women outraged. The Turkish troops sent to preserve order were assisting in the outrages. The Musselmen population of Damascus, as late as July 28th, maintained a menacing attitude.—Large bodies of fanatics were parading the town, demanding the surrender of the christians, who had sought refuge in the citadel. Troops dispatched from Beyrout had not yet arrived.

Edward Thode, a fugitive Russian defaulter, for whose arrest a reward of $25,000 was offered by the Russian government, was arrested in New York on the 3d.—$50,000 in Russian paper was found in his possession.

Napoleon has proposed a congress to settle the Italian question. The city of Shanghai is protected by the allies. The Chinese rebels are making progress and trade with the interior is stopped.

Senator Polk addressed a large crowd in Lexington, Mo., on Tuesday, in favor of Breckinridge.

Dates from New Mexico to the 21st have been received.

A campaign against the Navajoo Indians will be made this fall. The citizens will raise one thousand volunteers, independent of the regular army. Weather continues dry in that country, there being no rain for some time. The crops are suffering for the want of it.

STRIKING AT RANDOM.—The new editors of the Democrat are not yet sufficiently posted in the politics in Wisconsin to deal their blows without hitting their own friends. In their issue of this morning, they are suffering under a severe attack of negro equality, and find all sorts of horrors likely to result from the ascendancy of republicanism. Let us call attention to a little scrap of democratic history in this state.

In 1849, when the democracy were coquetting with, wooed and embraced Booth, as well as the free soil party, a democratic state convention passed a series of resolutions as strongly tinctured with the monster of abolitionism as ever were adopted outside of a meeting of Garrisonians.—Among the resolutions was the following:

Resolved, THAT WE HOLD TO AND ADVOCATE THE DOCTRINE OF FREE AND EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

The convention which adopted this resolution nominated Nelson Dewey for Governor, Samuel W. Beal for Lieut. Governor, Wm. A. Barstow for Secretary of State, S. Park Coon for Attorney General, and J. C. Fairchild for Treasurer. These men were good democrats then, and are good democrats still, as "democracy" was and is authoratively expounded. Each formally, by letter, accepted his nomination, and each pledged himself unequivocally to the resolutions of the convention. Mr. Barstow, who subsequently received still higher honors from his party, replied as follows:

I cheerfully and unequivocally state, that I am in favor of the principles set forth in those resolutions. I believe they contain principles which should AT ALL TIMES govern the action of the democratic party, and am ready at all times to advocate and sustain them with whatever ability or influence I may possess, either official or otherwise.
Very respectfully yours, etc.,
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

Were our new neighbors ignorant of this fact in the history of their party, or did they design to give a prominent democratic politician and a townsman a dig under the ribs? Has nobody but the editors of the Gazette and republicans advocated free suffrage in Wisconsin? or are all who have advocated that measure in favor of the social equality of the white and black races?

Who believes that "all men are created free and equal," a declaration whose moral, social, political and logical sequence is, that negroes are every way equal with white men, and therefore, it can be but a simple act of justice to put them on such equality?
—Daily Democrat.

Wm. A. Barstow, Nelson Dewey, S. Park Coon, S. W. Beal, J. C. Fairchild, and the democratic state convention of 1849. (See the resolutions of that convention, and the replies of its candidates.)

A POLITICAL TEXT BOOK.—This is a very useful volume for reference. It is compiled by Horace Greeley and John F. Cleveland, and comprises a brief view of presidential nominations and electors, including all the platformes ever yet adopted; also a history of the struggle respecting slavery in the territories, and of the action of congress as to the freedom of the public lands, with the most notable speeches and letters of Messrs. Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, &c., touching the questions of the day; and returns of all presidential elections since 1836. It is intended for all parties and all partizan bias is excluded, and is so conveinent as to be almost a necessity for those who desire to inform themselves upon the political topics of the day. For sale at Newell's Bookstore.

☞ It is thought by some that the "Democrat" sets its coulter too deep for a man who ploughs new ground. That may be true or not, but we should be obliged to its editors if they would furnish the PROOF for the assertions made in the leading editorial article of this morning.

☞ The population of Racine, according to the census, is 7,824, This is 19 more than Janesville, and barely entitles Racine to be called the second city in Wisconsin. If our census takers had taken two or three weeks to hunt up the number necessary, we have no doubt enough might have been found to have placed Janesville ahead of Racine.

National Horse Show.

There was a good exhibition of stock this forenoon, and a larger attendance than yesterday. The principal feature was the trotting of double teams in harness. Three teams were entered—Chieftain, owned by M. F. Patrick of Chicago, and Dick Turpin owned by G. Dutcher, of Madison; a span of chesnut geldings from Milwaukee, and a pair of bays, Ratler and Rowdy, owned by J. M. Leonard and T. W. Brandt of this city.

Chieftain and Dick Turpin and the sorrel span started together, and made a beautiful trot. The first heat was made in 3:11 by Chieftain and Turpin, without breaking.—The second heat by these horses which was relieved by a trial by Ratler and Rowdy, was 2:58½. The Milwaukee horses were beaten several rods.

The the time made by Ratler and Rowdy (who turned the track alone,) was 3:20 first heat, and 3:17 second heat.

The premium was awarded to Messrs. Dutcher and Patrick.

The following premiums, reported after our paper went to press last evening, were awarded on yesterday's exhibition:

Class H.—Stallions, 2 years old. 1st prem., W. J. Pixley, Delevan, Wis.; 2d do, W. C. Hadford, Rockford, Ill.
Class I.—Geldings or fillies, 3 years old. 1st prem., J. M. Leonard, Janesville; 2d do, H. H. Yates, Chicago.
Class J.—Geldings or fillies 2 years old. 1st prem., H. V. McCarger, Magnolia, Wis.; 2d do, J. M. Leonard, Janesville.
Class K.—Geldings or fillies 1 year old. 1st prem., H. B. Fales, Janesville.
Class N.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies under saddle. 1st prem., A. Spink, Chicago—time, 2:48; 2d do, O. H. Heath, Waukegan, Ill., —time, 2:51.
Class V.—Trotting horses, geldings or fillies, 3 years old. H. H. Yates, Chicago, "Minnehaha."—no time furnished with "Minnie."

The following is the programme for tomorrow:

FORENOON.
1st. Class F, Single carriage horses to harness.
2d. Class B, Stallion roadsters, 4 years old and upwards.
3d. Class R, Trotting geldings or fillies to harness.
4th. Class Extra No. 1, Trotting tandem.

AFTERNOON.
1st. Class P, Gentlemen's saddle horses.
2d. Class U, Gentlemen equestrians.
3d. LADY EQUESTRIANS.
4th. Award of premiums to lady equestrians.

The exhibition to-morrow will exceed in interest any of the preceding days, and if the weather is good the fair ground will be crowded. The display of lady equestrianism has always been a popular and attractive feature in our local fairs, and with the large number of competitors, the scene to-morrow will be one of exciting interest.—An excellent opportunity to witness not only this, but the other exhibitions on the track will be afforded from the seats erected inside the enclosure.

Aside from the published programme for the day, the Dane Cavalry will make a full dress parade. This company is unquestionably the best cavalry company in the west, and its presence and parade will add to the attractions of the day.

A STATE CONVENTION OF THE WIDE-AWAKES.—The indications are that there will be a very large representation of the Wide-Awake companies of the state at the Seward meeting on the 12th inst., and that the demonstration in the evening will be one of great brilliancy.

The companies from Beloit, Janesville, Whitewater, Elkhorn, Delevan, Waukesha, Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Mineral Point, Mazomanie, &c., &c., are expected. The invitation is general to the various companies of the state, and our club here are taking measures to receive their visitors, and render the affair as pleasant for them as possible.

A meeting of the Madison Wide-Awakes was held on Saturday evening, and steps were taken for providing a rendezvous for the companies that may be here on the 12th, where they can leave their uniforms and torches with safety, and where they can assemble and form when the hour arrives for the parade. Our company will spare no pains to see that such of their brethren as attend the Seward meeting are well cared for.—Madison Journal.

YANCEY ON THE DOUGLAS AND K. N. COALITION.—Yancey, in his speech at Memphis, alluded to the coalition between Douglas and the Know Nothings in New York and Kentucky, thus:

"I don't wonder Leslie Coombs asks the Irishmen not to criticise the past too much. I do not much wonder when we think of that bloody and awful August, when fire and faggot, bayonet and ball poured out their blood in the streets of Louisville, amid the shrieks of their women and children. [Immense aplpause.] I don't wonder after Know Nothingism had shown its horrid vengeance against these poor foreigners there that Coombs should now say, don't let us criticise the past much. It is my province to say to the foreign population, if you forget the hour when the bones of your wives and children crackled in the flames of Know Nothingism you deserve to be forgotten of your God. [Tremendous applause."]

TOMATO CATSUP.—Take ripe tomatoes, and scald them just sufficient to allow you to take off the skins; then let them stand for a day, covered with salt; strain them through to remove the seeds; then to every two quarts, add three ounces of cloves, two of black pepper, two nutmegs, and a very little Cayenne pepper, with a little salt; boil the liquor for an hour, then let it cool and settle; add a pint of the best cider vinegar, after which, bottle it, corking and sealing it tightly. Keep in a cool place.

ANOTHER WAY.—Take one bushel of tomatoes, and boil them until they are soft; squeeze them through a fine wire sieve, and add half a gallon of vinegar, one pint and a half of salt, two ounces of cloves, quarter of a pound of allspice, two ounces of Cayenne pepper, five heads of garlic skinned and separated; mix together, and boil about three hours, or until reduced to about one half; then bottle without straining.

TO PRESERVE PURPLE PLUMS.—Make a syrup of clean brown sugar; clarify it; when perfectly clear and boiling hot, pour it over the plums, having picked out all unsound ones and stems; let them remain in the syrup two days, then drain it off, make it boiling hot, skim it, and pour it over again; let them remain another day or two, then put them in a preserving-kettle over the fire, and simmer gently until the syrup is reduced, and thick or rich. One pound of sugar for each pound of plums.

For the Daily Gazette.
"See Me."

In the Daily Democrat of Sept. 4th, appeared an article with the above heading, in which the nominee of the republican party for the presidency is ridiculed for remaining at home instead of taking the stump to advocate his claims for that office, like his competitor, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the former and purer days of the republic, modesty was esteemed a virtue; but it seems that such an idea was preposterous and no person in the estimation of democrats, is qualified for the highest office in the gift of the people, unless he is a perfect adept in the games of "bluff" and "brag," and it cannot be said that their candidate is at all deficient in any point necessary to qualify him for the practice of these games. "My great principle" looms far above all other considerations with him, and when that "principle" is fully investigated, its whole substance is found comprised in the single word self; all else is the merest moonshine, as has been proved to the satisfaction of every intelligent man in the nation. In fact, he himself proves it when he says that he is not in favor of giving to the people of the territories, the power to elect their own rulers before they become a state, and denounces all such as wish to do so as usurpers and traitors. If anybody doubts that he said so, let him look at the Congressional Globe of the last session, and he will find it there reported in his speeches.

So that "my great principle" resolves itself into "my great self;" and my great self, rings only and continually, with a thousand variations, "Come and see me;" "See me, for I am the great High Priest of democracy; see me, for I repealed the Missouri compromise line; see me, for I gave to slavery, territory five times the state of New York; see me, for I introduced a bill into the United States Senate for the revival of the alien and sedition laws; see me, for I introduced another bill for the imprisonment of all persons neglecting to return fugitive slaves to their masters, knowing them to be such; see me, for I voted against the repeal of the laws of the territory of New Mexico, declaring all white laboring men and women slaves; see me, for I applauded disunion sentiments uttered by southern senators; see me, for I am in close cammunion with Arch Bishop Hughes; see me for I am a continuation of Japhet in seagch of his father," as I am search of my mother, see me, for I "played smart" with the arrangements of politicians at Charleston and Baltimore; See me, for I was a traitor to the noble Broderick, and even after death would not vindicate his character; Oh, come and see me all ye people, for I am the nominee of one side of the "great unterrified" for the office of president, and if I ever get to the White House see how deep your pockets are, and then see you all in a place that shall be nameless. J. B. K.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

GOV. SEWARD'S PARTY FOR THE WEST.—The Auburn Adveriser learns, from a responsible source, that Lieut. Govenor Patterson and Gen. Nye, of New York, together with the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, of Quincy, Mass., and his son C. F. Adams, Esq., of Boston, so also Geo. E. Baker, Esq. of Albany, will accompany the Governor on his western excursion.

A PROSPEROUS JOURNAL.—The proprietors of the Chicago Press and Tribune, who, a year ago last November were obliged to ask an extension on a large amount of debt announce that the last dollar of that dept was paid off in full, principal and interest, last week, and that beyond the ordinary current accounts paid monthly, they owe no man a dollar.

Mr. Winans, of Baltimore, intends to build a hotel in that city costing a million dollars. He intends to make it superior to any hotel in the country.

BRECKINRIDGE STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY.—The Breckinridge wing of the democracy meet in state convention, at the St. Charles hotel in this city at 3 p. m. to-day. The leaders of this faction have gathered here in great force, for them—some say as high as 200, others 100, while others insist that it is 10 or 12. But the latter estimate must be regarded as the base coinage of some malicious mind—at all events they comprise the most respectable and able members of the democratic party, what there is left of it. Hon. Thomas Campbell, of Illinois, who is said to be quite a gun, is to address them. Among the men of note we observe E. Fox Cook, E. A. Calkins, of the Argus, E. B. Dean, Mr. Van Dyke and many others.—Wisconsin of Tuesday.

We are glad to see our esteemed friend, Hon. Luther Hanchett of Portage county, put in nomination for congress by the republicans of the 2d district. We have had opportunities during two sessions of the legislature, of witnessing the soundness and efficiency of Mr. Hanchett's labors as a law maker and legislator. We take pleasure, therefore, in saying that in our judgment the republicans of the 2d district have recognized the obligation that rested upon them, and which rests upon all parties that have overwhelming majorities in nominating their best man.

Mr. H. is 35 years of age—a native of the Buckeye State—a good lawyer, a good speaker and an honest and honorable man. His election is certain.—Home League.

NEW LINE OF EXPORTS.—We saw on the docks of Newberry & Goodell yesterday 18,-000 feet of seasoned white oak and butternut lumber, for cabinet makers use. This came from Chilton on the east shore of Lake Winnebago and is destined for New York city. Should this venture prove profitable it will be followed up by other shipments; we have forests of oak, maple and other valuable timber in this region, sufficient to supply any demand—and we are glad to see this indication of its being brought into use. We notice almost daily large arrivals of staves for shipment; we fear the advanced rates for freights may have a discouraging effect upon this article of export—but hope it may not.—Green Bay Press.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 5.

The Breckinridge state convention yesterday was attended by about 150 delegates from all parts of the state. Hon. G. B. Judd, of Racine, presided. A full electoral ticket was put in nomination. Electors at Large—Samuel Elmore, of Milwaukee, and Napoleon B. Van Slyke, of Madison. 1st district, Isaac J. Ullman, of Racine. 2nd. district, H. D. Barron, of Pepin. 3rd district, H. S. Pierpont, of Manitowoc. Great harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. In the evening the convention was addressed for three hours by Hon. Thompson Campbell, of Illinois.

CAPE RACE, Sept. 4.

The steamship America from Liverpool Aug. 25th, via Queenstown 26th, passed this place at 3 o'clock Tuesday, and was boarded by the news yacht of the associated press.

The steamship Prince Albert from New York 14th, via St. Johns, N. F., arrived at Galway on the 24th. The Prince Albert was to take the place of the Connaught, leaving Galway on the 28th for St. Johns and New York. The America's news is unimportant.

The invasion of Calabria by Garabaldi is fully confirmed. The town of Regio had been attacked and taken by Garabaldi. 4,-000 Calabrian insurgents had joined the Garabaldians, a general battle with the Neapolitans was imminent. The emperor and empress of France had gone to Savoy and Nice. It was said a French corps de arms of 10,000 men with campaign materials and artillery was ordered to be ready to move on short notice.

The weather in England had been most unfavorable, but was fairer when the America sailed.

LIVERPOOL.—The British Parliament was to be prorogued on the 28th.

Saturday was an art day in London.

The Asia arrived from New York at Queenstown on the 26th.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.

Flour receipts 94,000 bbls., market opened 5c higher and closed scarcely so firm, sales 17,000 bbls at 5,80a5,90 for extra state, 5,05a5,65 super western, 5,80a6,00 common to medium extra western. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Republican County Convention.

The Republicans of Rock County will meet in convention by their delegates at the Court Room, in Janesville, on WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of September next, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate candidates for County Officers. The respective towns and wards will be entitled to delegates as follows:

Avon,	2	Harmony,	3
Beloit, town,	2	Janesville, town,	2
Beloit City, 1st ward,	4	Johnstown,	4
2d ward,	2	Lima,	3
3d ward,	2	Magnolia,	4
4th ward,	2	Milton,	4
Bradford,	3	Newark,	3
Center,	3	Plymouth,	3
Clinton,	4	Union,	4
Fulton,	4	La Prairie,	3
Jan'sv'e City, 1st ward,	3	Porter,	3
2d ward,	3	Rock,	3
3d ward,	2	Spring Valley,	3
4th ward,	4	Turtle,	4

The county committee would recommend that the delegates to this convention be chosen in the different towns and wards on Saturday, the 8th of September, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the place of holding the last annual town meeting, where a different time is not designated by the proper town committees.

The question of a new apportionment to correct the inequalities of former representations was discussed by the committee; but in view of the difficulty of making any changes without full returns of the census just taken, it is deemed advisable to adopt the apportionment of the last convention as likely to lead to less complaint than a partial change or an entire change made without the necessary information.

B. E. HALE, Chairman.

CHARLES HOLT, Secretary.

Postponement.

To allow the delegates and other republicans of Rock county interested in this convention an opportunity to attend the meeting at Madison on the 12th, this convention has been postponed until THURSDAY, the 13th day of September inst.

OUR NEXT PUBLICATION.—To give the workmen in our office and ourselves an opportunity to witness the exhibition at the fair ground to-morrow afternoon, to-morrow's Gazette will be issued at noon. Those who desire the use of our columns to-morrow "will take notice and govern themselves accordingly."

Chicago Zouaves.

In compliance with the invitation extended by the executive committee of the national fair, on behalf of the citizens of Janesville, to the Zouave Cadets of Chicago to visit the city, a portion of the company arrived this morning. The loss of time suffered by the recent eastern trip of the company has prevented the acceptance of the invitation by as large a number of the company as was desired by them or expected by our citizens, and a sufficient number are not present to warrant a field parade. Arrangements, however, have been made for an exhibition of their peculiar drill at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. The members of the company present are under the command of of Dr. Charles A. de Williers, surgeon of the cadets, who was with the French army in Algiers (where this peculiar organization originated) for eight years, and who held a major's commission in that army, and who has instructed the officers of the cadets in the drill which has given them a national reputation. This exhibition will include the sword, bayonet and other exercises; in short, everything but a company movement on a field parade.

To prevent the hall being filled by a crowd of boys and others, to the exclusion of ladies or families who may desire to witness their unequaled exercises, a small admission fee will be charged, which will be announced in a poster.

The exercises of the cadets will be upon the stage in the hall, which will leave the galleries and the body of the hall to the quiet possession of the audience. Those who wish to witness without the inconvenience and discomfort of an outside crowd what has attracted the attention and admiration of thousands will find the opportunity now offered a very favorable one.

P. S. Since the above was written and just as we go to press, we learn that the Cadets will appear on the fair grounds tomorrow, and go through with their evolutions. We presume, however, the drill at the hall in the evening will take place as announced, where a more favorable opportunity for a small audience will be afforded than at the fair. If any different arrangement is made, and the drill in the hall is dispensed with, we shall make an announcement of the fact to-morrow.

A FINE HEIFER.—While so much attention is directed to the animals on exhibition at the national fair, "a horse of another color" is worthy of a passing notice. A day or two ago, Geo. A. Young purchased one of the best heifers ever raised in Wisconsin. It is a Durham, five years old, was raised by J. G. Scofield of the town of Plymouth, and is estimated to weigh between 1700 and 1800 lbs. This heifer will be killed to-night, and offered for sale at Mr. Young's market, on the bridge, to-morrow morning. More than one family will have a good dinner, sure.

CARD WRITING.—We have examined specimens of Mr. Lowell's card writing, and have seen none executed in better taste.—We cheerfully commend him to such as wish to procure visiting or wedding cards written in a style equal to engraving. See advertising column.

CIRCUS.—This week seems likely to be a lively one. After the fair closes, a circus is coming. An advertisement in to-day's paper tells what are its merits and attractions, and when it will be exhibited. The tent will be pitched, we understand, on the public square. See the advertisement.

REFRESHMENTS.—Visitors to the fair ground will find good entertainment at Floral Hall, the particulars of which will be ascertained by consulting the advertisement of J. M. Kimball & Co.

FAIR BALL.—Among the amusements incident to the fair is a dance this and to-morrow evening at the court room. The price, $1.00, is cheap enough for a general participation.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Milwaukee and Mississippi road has changed its time table. Trains leave for Madison and Prairie du Chien at 2:15 A. M., and 1:40 P. M. For Milwaukee 7:50 A. M. and 1:40 P. M.

DANE CAVALRY.—This fine company arrived to-day, and will make a full dress parade to morrow on the fair grounds. A rare treat is in store for the visitors to the fair.

ATTENTION WIDE AWAKES!

THERE WILL BE A

Grand Street Drill

On Thursday Evening, Sept. 6th.

Every member will be at the Hall at 7½ o'clock, fully equipt.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

Republican Club Meeting.

There will be a business meeting of the Janesville City Republican Club held at the court room on Saturday evening, Sept. 8th. This meeting is called for the purpose of making complete arrangements for conducting the present campaign in this city. It is very necessary that every republican in the city should be present if possible.

It will be determined at this meeting whether this campaign shall be so conducted as to ensure us a large republican majority in this city or not.

We very much hope that the republicans of the city will not regard this meeting as an ordinary business meeting and of no importance, but that every one will be present to assist in its deliberations.

R. B. TREAT, Pres't.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.—At the next meeting of the republican club, a notice for which will be found in another column, it is proposed to take measures for organising for the campaign. It is a subject of importance and it is desirable that its consideration should come before a full meeting of the club. We would, therefore, urge every member to attend.

A SALUTE.—Harry Bingham, of Madison, came with the Dane Cavalry this morning, and brought his "baby-waker" with him. At noon, he gave our citizens a test of its quality, in the shape of a salute—at the foot of Pleasant street bridge. When "worked" to its capacity, it gave 4 rounds in a minute. The "waker" is worthy of Harry; Harry is worthy of the Cavalry; and the Cavalry is an honor to the state. Altogether, the visit of the Cavalry is a No. 1 affair.

BEAUTIFUL GOODS.—Webb & Lee, whose advertisement we publish this afternoon, have a new stock of goods of unusual beauty and value. The selection was made by one of the partners, and when such articles as they now offer can find purchasers, (as they will,) it is an unquestioned evidence of returning good times. A visit to their store will afford a real gratification.

MASONIC.—The regular meeting of the Janesville Commandary A. K. T. will be held this evening, Wednesday Sept. 5th at 7½ o'clock.

At a meeting, held by the barbers of Janesville, on the 16th of August last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we will not open our shops any more on the sabbath; to take effect on next sabbath, Sept. 9th.

sept5d3t—w2.

RECEIVED THIS DAY AT NEWELL'S.—The Political Text Book for 1860, also a large lot of classical text books and miscellaneous books.

Floral Hall.

GREAT ATTRACTION!

Ladies' Equestrian Fair.—Floral Hall, situated in the center of the fair grounds, has been put in excellent order for the accommodation of Ladies and Gentlemen visiting the fair on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th of September. The interior has been thoroughly renovated and two hundred and fifty chairs, with a large number of tables, are provided for family parties who desire refreshments. A large private appartment is appropriated especially for the use of ladies, with females in attendance. Chairs are also placed upon the balcony surrounding the cupola, giving parties a fine view of the entire grounds. As an additional inducement for patronizing "Floral Hall," the proprietors will distribute Fifty Presents, valued at Five Hundred Dollars to the patrons of this establishment. The Presents will be given out on Friday the 7th of September, at 4 o'clock, by a committee appointed for that purpose, who will distribute the same to the patrons upon such plan as they may deem most proper. Should a present fail to the lot of any one not in attendance at the time of the distribution, the committee will retain the same until called for. The articles to be presented are now on exhibition at the Jewelry Store of S. C. Spaulding, Esq., of this city, where they will remain until the day of presentation. [au31d1w] J. F. KIMBALL & CO.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,

BUMP & GRAY.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 5, 1860.

There was a large falling off in receipts of wheat today from yesterday, only about 2500 bushels being on the market during the day. Prices ruled steady at yesterday's quotations until towards night when, from some cause or other, buyers lowered their views 1@2c on shipping grades, closing at 78@80c. Milling samples were scarce and in demand at 83@85c to mills. Receipts of oats and corn were fair and market dull at 30@32c for corn and 15@17c for oats.

The large decrease in receipts, we think is owing partly to the National Horse Show which is now exhibiting in this city, and mostly to the wet rainy weather during the forepart of the day.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 83a85; common to fair shipping 78a80.

CORN—shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. Ear 20a25c per 70 lbs.

OATS—dull at 15a17c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—good samples in demand at 37½a44c per 50 lbs., common quality 25a30.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—very scarce at 13a15.

EGGS—owing to a better supply have declined to 5a6c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 5½; Dry, salted, 10; Dry, flint, 12 to 13.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little comming forward.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33⅓	per	ct
2d " " "	1858,	50	"
3d " " "	1859,	50	"
4th " " "	1860,	45	"

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,	$570,353 43
" 1857, " " "	649,719 54

BENTON'S CIGARS!

THE PLACE TO FIND THEM!

New Establishment!

THE undersigned having dissolved the co-partnership existing between himself and W. P. Woodward, has the pleasure of announcing to the citizens of Janesville, the people of Rock county, and the world at large, that he has opened a

for the manufacture and sale of

CIGARS, CHEWING AND SMOKING TOBACCO, SNUFF, and tobacco of all kinds, in the frame building on the East End of the Upper Bridge, on recently occupied by F. Lindhorst. In making this announcement he feels that it is unnecessary to indulge in any puffing and blowing, as is frequently done by others. He has only to say that puff themselves, and as he is now upon his 'own hook,' he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than ever. The people will now know where tobacco of all kinds and in all shapes, of the choicest variety, may be found. BENTON'S IS THE PLACE. Give him a call.

MILWAUKEE STREET!
